

Press Release

Contact

Sharon Powers

spowers@coachmarketingltd.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Excellence in Chicago Construction Honored at 60th Annual CBC Merit Awards

CHICAGO, IL, MAY 24, 2016 - Industry leaders from all of Chicagoland met to celebrate excellence in construction at the 60th Annual Chicago Building Congress Merit Awards. Held at the Downtown Marriot Magnificent Mile, this year's Merit Awards honored finalists in 9 separate categories.

In the months preceding the award ceremony, each of these finalists presented the merits of their project to a panel of judges comprised of industry professionals. Judges scored each finalist on criteria such as safety and innovation, with one winner per category selected via ballot voting.

The awards dinner kicked off with a cocktail reception, before starting in earnest with a video featuring the history of the Merit Awards, and interviews from some of the year's finalists. CBC president Paul Helmer then took the stage for his welcome address, in which he spoke of the importance of recognizing excellence in Chicago construction.

Winners were announced one category at a time, with each finalist being recognized in a short video before the winner was revealed.

This year's winners:

New Construction Chicago - Over $55 Million – NewCity

New Construction Chicago - Under $55 Million - Chinatown Branch, Chicago Public Library

New Construction Suburbs - DuPage County Health Dept. Community Center

Rehab Construction - Chicago Athletic Association

Construction Under $15 Million - Rosewood Beach Development

Infrastructure Construction - Chicago Riverwalk Phase II

Industrial Construction - Amazon Sortation & Fulfillment Center

Interior Buildout - Confidential Technology Project

CBC/COAA Owners' Choice Award - Public Building Commission Chicago Children's Advocacy Center

For additional information, including photos and video, please contact Sharon Powers at spowers@coachmarketingltd.com